

Damartex Strengthens its Executive Committee with the Appointments of a Financial Director and a Group Human Resources & Transformation Director

Damartex announces the arrival of Anne-Sylvie Hubert as Chief Financial Officer and Khatia Dalla Costa-Paulmier at the newly created position of Executive Director Human Resources & Transformation. This recruitment supports the Group's ambitions to be one of the European Leaders in the Silver Economy as well as the materialization of its strategic plan "TTA 2.0".

Anne-Sylvie Hubert will join the Group as CFO of Damartex on 3 April 2023. Previously CFO of the Kiabi Group for the past 6 years, she has built her entire career in finance, having worked in particular at KPMG, Deloitte and in private equity. Anne-Sylvie will strengthen the Damartex Group to achieve its ambitions in an ever-changing market context.

Khatia Dalla Costa-Paulmier has been appointed Group Human Resources & Transformation Director. In this new role, Khatia is, among others, in charge of talent management through the smooth running of the HR teams. She will also focus on developing the Damartex employer brand to meet its roadmap as effectively as possible. More specifically, she will be responsible for the HR and Transformation strategy within the Comex.

Patrick Seghin, CEO Damartex Group: "I am delighted with these two structuring arrivals which will support the ambitions of our TTA 2.0 strategic plan. Anne-Sylvie and Khatia will accompany the Group further in its transformation and will be undeniable strengths in the face of the many current and future challenges".
